Kokio darbo ieškau? Mano teigiamos savybės

Hello! My name is Glory Uweribeno and I'm from Nigeria. I'm a TEFL Certified Trainer, a Phonics Instructor and a graduate of History and International Studies. I have over four year experience teaching English to adults and children. I currently work as an online ESL teacher, teaching business English and Conversational English to Japanese professionals and Vietnamese learners respectively. Outside of teaching, I love reading, singing, meeting people, counselling and decorating interior spaces. I believe that having interests outside of work helps me maintain a healthy work-life balance, which is important for my overall well-being. I would like to describe myself as disciplined, trustworthy, flexible and a team worker. Over the years of teaching, I've come to realize that learners have their unique ways of learning things, so I always incorporate that into my teaching style and method. My classes are usually interactive, easy to learn, fun and non-judgemental.
