Kokio darbo ieškau? Mano teigiamos savybės

Hello, my name is Mohamed Nazih, and I have one year of experience in volunteer work within the Moroccan Red Crescent, affiliated with the International Red Cross. I specialize in first aid and rapid aid in all fields, helping poor people, the sick, the wounded, firefighters, and the infirm, providing them with medical care, psychological care, and helping them in their daily lives as well.

I love long-term volunteer work, given my experience in this field and other areas of volunteering, where I can help you in all possible fields with all my energy and experience. I also have modest experience in the paramedical field and I am characterized by team spirit and leadership.

I pledge that I will give my full effort and energy to help you in all work, and I am tired at any time or place, because I love volunteering and I find myself in it and I can give a lot to you.

I would like you to review my file and accept me , thank you for this
