Kokio darbo ieškau? Mano teigiamos savybės

Dear Sir/Madam,

With the utmost enthusiasm I would like to put my name forward for your position of Cook, which I saw advertised today on the Internet.

I have an unmatched passion for cooking mouth-watering dishes.

In your job description you say that applicants should be able to delegate duties to kitchen staff, I can do this as well as ensure any staffing issues are resolved fairly and quickly.

My extensive experience of promoting a customer focused culture within the kitchen is well documented in the attached CV. In it you will see that I have a track record of promptly addressing any customer complaints, concerns, or queries to the satisfaction of all concerned parties.

In my current role, I am directly responsible for all kitchen functions, including the training of employees in methods of cooking, preparation, plate presentation and portion control. With my compatriots I have a reputation for helping fellow staff when they are struggling.

Aside from my technical / professional competencies, I am a generous and helpful individual who is willing to share with others my ideas, recipes or cooking tips and tricks.

At this stage of my career, I want to join a reputable company like yours where I will be given the freedom to introduce new ideas into an ever-evolving kitchen. I very much hope that you will recognise my enthusiasm, talents as well as future potential and invite me for an interview. If acceptable, I will contact you next week to confirm your receipt of my application, however please free to contact me if you require clarification or any further information.

Thank you very much for taking up some of your valuable time to review my application.

Yours sincerely
