Kokio darbo ieškau? Mano teigiamos savybės

I am Jalali Maleh, a professional auto mechanic from Algeria. I have over 11 years of experience in the maintenance and repair of various types of vehicles. I obtained a technical diploma in mechanics from vocational training and worked in several workshops where I developed my skills in diagnosing faults, repairing engines, electrical systems, and brake and injection systems.

I am currently seeking a position as a car or truck mechanic in a country like Lithuania, within a professional team that offers a structured work environment and professional development. I have extensive experience in diagnosing and resolving faults quickly and accurately, being punctual, and able to work within a team or independently.

I am able to continuously learn and adapt to new technologies.

I have good customer service skills and provide technical advice.

I have a good level of French and basic English (and I am currently learning to improve my English).
